Dear Friends:

I would like to be able to thank each of you personally for the contributions you made during our campaign to raise $50,000 to meet our anticipated operating deficit for 1961. Since that is physically impossible, I take this space and this opportunity to express the gratitude of the entire staff of WBAI.

Gifts ranged from $1 to one for $4,000, and I am quite sure that most of the smaller gifts represented more personal sacrifice than did many of the larger ones. Thus no gift was — or is — too small to be sincerely appreciated.

We achieved little more than half our goal, but that money is currently keeping us going. Anything further that trickles in will help that much more.

Again thanks and best wishes.
